1 Publication

The copyright to this article, including any supplementary information and graphic elements therein (e.g. illustrations, charts, moving images) (the 'Article'), is hereby assigned for good and valuable consideration to Zhejiang University Press (the 'Assignee'). Headings are for convenience only.

2 Grant of Rights

In consideration of the Assignee evaluating the Article for publication, the Author grants the Assignee the exclusive (except as set out in clauses 3, 4 and 5a) iv), assignable and sub-licensable right, unlimited in time and territory, to copy-edit, reproduce, publish, distribute, transmit, make available and store the Article, including abstracts thereof, in all forms of media of expression now known or developed in the future, including pre- and reprints, translations, photographic reproductions and extensions.

Furthermore, to enable additional publishing services, such as promotion of the Article, the Author grants the Assignee the right to use the Article (including the use of any graphic elements on a stand-alone basis) in whole or in part in electronic form, such as for display in databases or data networks (e.g. the Internet), or for print or download to stationary or portable devices. This includes interactive and multimedia use as well as posting the Article in full or in part or its abstract on social media, and the right to alter the Article to the extent necessary for such use. The Assignee may also let third parties share the Article in full or in part or its abstract on social media and may in this context sub-license the Article and its abstract to social media users. Author grants to Assignee the right to re-license Article metadata without restriction (including but not limited to author name, title, abstract, citation, references, keywords and any additional information as determined by Assignee).

If the Article is rejected by the Assignee and not published, all rights under this agreement shall revert to the Author.

3 Self Archiving

Author is permitted to self-archive a preprint and the accepted manuscript version of their Article.

- a) A preprint is the version of the Article before peer-review has taken place ("Preprint"). Prior to acceptance for publication, Author retains the right to make a Preprint of their Article available on any of the following: their own personal, self-maintained website; a legally compliant Preprint server such as but not limited to arXiv and bioRxiv. Once the Article has been published, the Author should update the acknowledgement and provide a link to the definitive version on the publisher's website: "This is a preprint of an article published in [insert journal title]. The final authenticated version is available online at: [https://doi.org/\[insert DOI\]](https://doi.org/[insert DOI])"
- b) The accepted manuscript version, by industry standard called the "Author's Accepted Manuscript" ("AAM") is the version accepted for publication in a journal following peer review but prior to copyediting and typesetting that can be made available under the following conditions:
  - (i) Author retains the right to make an AAM of the Article available on their own personal, self-maintained website immediately on acceptance,
  - (ii) Author retains the right to make an AAM of the Article available for public release on any of the following 12 months after first publication ("Embargo Period"): their employer's internal website; their institutional and/or funder repositories; AAMs may also be deposited in such repositories immediately on acceptance, provided that they are not made publicly available until after the Embargo Period.

An acknowledgement in the following form should be included, together with a link to the published version on the publisher's website: "This is a post-peer-review, pre-copyedit version of an article published in [insert journal title]. The final authenticated version is available online at: [https://doi.org/\[insert DOI\]](https://doi.org/[insert DOI])".

4 Reuse Rights

Author retains the following non-exclusive rights for the published version provided that, when reproducing the Article or extracts from it, the Author acknowledges and references first publication in the Journal according to current citation standards. In any event the acknowledgement should contain as a minimum, "First published in [Journal name, volume, page number, year] by Springer Nature".

- a) to reuse graphic elements created by the Author and contained in the Article, in presentations and other works created by them;

b) the Author and any academic institution where they work at the time may reproduce the Article for the purpose of course teaching (but not for inclusion in course pack material for onward sale by libraries and institutions);

c) to reuse the published version of the Article or any part in a thesis written by the same Author, and to make a copy of that thesis available in a repository of the Author(s)' awarding academic institution, or other repository required by the awarding academic institution. An acknowledgement should be included in the citation: "Reproduced with permission from Springer Nature"; and

d) to reproduce, or to allow a third party to reproduce the Article, in whole or in part, in any other type of work (other than thesis) written by the Author for distribution by a publisher after an embargo period of 12 months.
